

FIRE UNDER THE SNOW

A Tibetan Monk - a spirit unbroken by 33 years of torture

The Venerable Palden Gyatso, a Buddhist monk since childhood, was arrested by the Chinese Communist Army in 1959. He spent 33 years in prison for the “crime” of demonstrating peacefully. He was starved and tortured. His nation and culture were destroyed, his teachers, friends and family displaced, jailed or killed under Chinese occupation. Despite this, he remained unbroken, and kept the flame of his spirit ablaze.

Fire Under the Snow reveals the contours of an inspirational story: the survival of a soul under unthinkable duress.

Proceeds to Gyuto Monks tour of Tasmania, 3-18 Sept 2011
Screening at State Cinema Hobart Wed August 17, 6.15 pm

Bookings at State Cinema